

sluggered to the floor. Then he toppled forward and fell into the water. At the splash of the body falling into the water, Thornton Hains turned, and seeing that Annis had fallen, lowered his revolver. John Tonnigan, a boatman employed by the club, leaped at Captain Hains, and, gripping his gun arm and holding it, drew back to strike him. Thornton Hains caught Tonnigan's arm.

"That's all right," he said. "It's all over now."

Charles H. Roberts, who lives on Ash Street, Waldheim, and other men pulled Annis's body out of the water, and several men carried it to the club house veranda. Captain Hains handed his pistol to one of the members standing by, and his brother followed his example, first breaking the breech of his Colt to show the cartridges, and calling attention to the fact that the revolver had not been discharged. Three or four of the club members grabbed the two men, but they raised their hands, remarking that violence was unnecessary, and that they were going to wait until the police arrived.

Shot the Wrong Man.

On the veranda Dr. Harris Houghton, a member of the club, was dressing Annis's wounds and doing what he could for the man who had been unconscious. Mrs. Annis assisted him. A telephone brought an ambulance from the Flushing hospital, and Annis was lifted in. He recovered consciousness a few minutes later, and said: "I know why he shot, but he shot the wrong man."

Later on he signed a statement at the request of Dr. Houghton, in which he merely gave the name of the man who had shot him. Then he again swooned and died at 7:15, nearly five hours after being shot.

He Wrecked My Home.

Captain Ruthenberg and Detectives Fallon and Felzel placed the Hainses under arrest. The same charge, felonious assault, was entered against both. Later, when the news reached the police of Annis's death, the charge against Captain Hains was changed to homicide, and Captain Ruthenberg said that Thornton Hains probably would be held as an accessory.

On the way to the police station, Captain Hains asked to send two telegrams. One of these was to his father, General Peter C. Hains. When Captain Hains stated to the writer the telegram, he began: "Annis is dead." One of the detectives, looking over his shoulder, reminded him that Annis was not dead.

"Damn him, he ought to be," Captain Hains exclaimed. "He wrecked my home."

Later in the evening Captain Hains telegraphed to his lawyer, Mr. W. C. Farley, asking him to come to the Flushing Jail.

Son of Distinguished Man.

Captain Hains is attached to Fort Hancock as quartermaster, having con-naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp, and a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

"Bergs for Clothes"

There is no age when a man is so particular about his clothes as when he "begins to take notice."

There is no firm that is more particular than we are about the making, style and fit of our suits for YOUNG MEN.

There is no other store in this section where young men can get all the new kinks in dress, because we are the only store that has actually a resident buyer in New York, who constantly sends us the newest things.

Here are Suits that are just "the real thing" for young men at $12.75—were $20.

O.H. Berruso
MEN & BOYS' OUTFITTERS

tered the army at the close of the Spanish-American War with the rank of second lieutenant of artillery. His father, General Peter C. Hains, was a West Point graduate with a distinguished war record. During the war he was in the South for several times, serving for gallant and meritorious service. Since then he has achieved prominence as an engineer, having had charge of the Potomac flats improvements and numerous works of harbor defense. He was made a member of the Board of Ordnance and Fortifications and of the Nicaragua and Isthmian Canal Commission. In 1895 he was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers, taking part in both the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns. He attained the rank of brigadier-general of regulars in 1903, and was retired July 6, 1904.

Had Sued for Divorce.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—Both Captain and Mrs. Hains have filed in Washington what have kept close track of the former last June, and they recall the fact that Captain Hains eloped with his wife, Miss Claudia Libbey, of Winthrop, Mass., in 1900, when she was a school girl of sixteen. So far as is known here they had lived happily together until last May, when Captain Hains returned from a trip to the Pacific Coast on a summons from his brother, who was charged to have made discoveries of improper conduct on the part of Mrs. Hains. At that time, Captain Hains summoned his father, Brigadier-General Hains, to New York, who upon returning, stated that his daughter-in-law had made a confession to him that she had been guilty of the conduct of the son's position. The couple have three children, which are in the custody of General Hains.

Father Is Notified.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., August 15.—General Hains, who is living here at Fort Hancock, was notified today of the shooting of Annis by his son, and started at once for Flushing. He was asked to make some comment on the matter, but declined to make any statement. Captain Hains arrived only recently from the Philippines and was detained for duty at Fort Hancock. His mother has charge of the house detailed for him at the fort. His wife is said to be living in Boston.

SHOP IS BURNED AND MAN SLAIN BY ANGRY MOB

(Continued From First Page.)

the place. She fled also, it is claimed, in deprecations and assaults which were committed later.

Many more without sufficient funds for the railroad trip went to the outskirts of the city byrolley, and then, with their few belongings on their backs, started to tramp across the country in search of safety.

Governor Deneen feels keenly the position in which the works of rough and rowdies has placed the capital city.

THE WEATHER

Forecast: Virginia—Fairly cloudy Sunday; probably local showers; slightly cooler in north portion; Monday fair, light to fresh northeast to east winds.

North Carolina—Local showers Sunday, somewhat cooler in west portion; Monday fair, variable winds.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT.

8 A. M. temperature..... 77
Humidity..... 77
Wind, direction..... South
Wind, velocity..... 2
Weather..... Partly cloudy
Rainfall..... 0.00
12 noon temperature..... 90
3 P. M. temperature..... 90
Maximum temperature up to 3 P. M. 91
Minimum temperature up to 3 P. M. 82
Mean temperature..... 82
Normal temperature..... 78
Excess in temperature to-day..... 4
Excess in temperature since March 4..... 165

Accum. excess in temperature since January 1st..... 74
Excess in rainfall since March 1st..... 2.30
Accum. excess in rainfall since January 1st..... 4.38

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.
(At 8 P. M., Eastern Standard Time.)
Ther. H. T. Weather.

Ashville..... 81 Rain
Augusta..... 81 Rain
Allatoona..... 81 Clear
Charlotte..... 81 P. cloudy
Chattanooga..... 82 Clear
Gainesville..... 81 Clear
Hatteras..... 80 P. cloudy
Jacksonville..... 81 Clear
Jupiter..... 81 Clear
Key West..... 74 Rain
Mobile..... 86 Rain
New Orleans..... 86 Rain
Palestine..... 86 Rain
Raleigh..... 79 Rain
Savannah..... 80 P. cloudy
Norfolk..... 78 Rain
Tampa..... 78 Rain
Wilmington..... 80 P. cloudy

MINIATURE ALMANAC.
August 16, 1908.
Sun rises..... 5:27
Sets..... 7:53
Moon rises..... 10:35
Evening..... 8:18

The arrival to-night of the First Regiment from Chicago was greeted by cheers from the curious ones, who, despite the order to remain indoors, lined the streets in the vicinity of the jail. With the arrival of the Second Regiment, General Young will have more than 3,000 men at his command.

"Tomorrow," said General Young, "I will have affairs in order. With a fuller knowledge of the city and men more accustomed to the police, now strange to them, it is doubtful if any considerable crowd will be able to gather."

City an Armed Camp.

The city, which is richest in memories of the great emancipator, State night an armed camp, because its citizens yesterday gave vent to hatred of the race which Abraham Lincoln declared free and equal with all other people in this country. Squads of soldiers are patrolling the downtown streets and in the troubled portions of the community, entire battalions are watching over the lives and property of the negroes.

Early to-day friends of William Howe, a colored man, who was so seriously hurt that he is hovering between life and death, made efforts to enlist followers for a raid of vengeance upon the black belt. Taking a lesson from last night's experience, Sheriff Warner at once notified Governor Deneen that fresh outbreaks were threatening and that more troops would be necessary. The response of the executive was prompt, and as a consequence a large number of troops are here, under the command of General E. C. Young. The troops consist of the First, Fourth and Fifth Regiments of Infantry, the Second Squadron of Cavalry, and a Gatling gun squadron. Two of the infantry regiments are scattered through the city at various points, the First Regiment being held in reserve and the Fourth on patrol duty.

Could Preserve Order.

The determination of the State to preserve order is shown in the following statement given out by Governor Deneen this evening. He said:

"The outbreak of mob violence was as intolerable as it is inexcusable. The idea of working vengeance upon a race for the crimes of one of its members is utterly repugnant to all notions of law and justice. No government can maintain its self-respect and permit the law to be broken. Resources of the State will be drawn upon, if necessary, to protect every citizen of Springfield in his person and property. And those who violate the law must suffer the consequences."

As further precaution all business establishments in the city closed at 6 o'clock. The saloons and liquor stores have not been open since before midnight Friday.

So strict were the regulations for keeping the people off the streets that the Mayor caused a postponement of the opening performance of "A Broken Idol," a new musical play, of the Wilkney Musical Company, of Chicago. One of the numbers in the performance entailed the appearance of the chorus in the guise of negroes, and it was largely on this account that the Mayor took this action.

The Killed and Wounded.

One death was recorded to-day as a result of the riot. John Caldwell, who was a spectator of the fighting in East Springfield, died in a hospital from the effects of a bullet wound in the stomach. Among the other victims were Louis Johnson, who was killed when Loper's restaurant was wrecked, and Scott Burton, an aged negro, who was lynched at Twelfth and Madison Streets early this morning. Of the wounded, Frank Delmore and Theodore Scott, both of whom were shot through the lungs, are not expected to live through the night. William Bowe has a fighting chance for life, according to the physicians. The other seriously injured persons, all suffering from gunshot wounds, are as follows:

Robert Seidler, William Mallot, Charles Holme, Lester Holt, John Norrins, Eugene Mayall, Will Smith (colored), Robert Oakley (colored), Lewis Hansen, Arthur Troyman, John Barrington, Charles Duncan (colored), Ossie Donegan, and others.

Many Negroes Leave.

All day (and) negroes have been leaving the city with their families and such possessions as they could hurriedly pack. This exodus took place despite the assurances of Governor Deneen that full protection would be afforded to those who remained in their homes. The Governor also took steps to alleviate the distress of the families whose homes or places of business were destroyed by the mob. A refugee camp was established at Camp Lincoln, and Companies D and H were sent to guard it. About three score persons were in the camp to-night.

Loper, whose restaurant was wrecked after he had assisted the sheriff in splitting away two negro prisoners from the jail late today for a resort in Michigan. He took the members of his family with him, but refused their destination.

Loper, in common with other property owners who suffered loss at the hands of the mob, was notified by the insurance companies to-day that all policies were rendered void by the riot. Under the statutes the city and county are each responsible for the property losses, and special assessments will be levied to cover the damages.

Man-a-Lin the Ideal Laxative

hands of the mob, was notified by the insurance companies to-day that all policies were rendered void by the riot. Under the statutes the city and county are each responsible for the property losses, and special assessments will be levied to cover the damages.

Charlotte Hero Drowns

Frederick Moore, twenty-two years old, was drowned in the Catawba River near the falls, this afternoon, in an effort to save the life of Miller Strong, son of Dr. C. M. Strong, of this city, who went out to the river this afternoon in an automobile with a party of other friends and relatives. While wading in the river the lad got beyond his depth, and cried for help. Alexander, who cannot swim, jumped into the water and made for the lad. Young Strong gained footing on the bank, and, clutching Alexander, managed to save himself, while Alexander sank for the last time before the young men in the party could effect his rescue.

The body was recovered this afternoon late. Alexander was a son of one of the most prominent families in the county and unmarried.

OBITUARY

John C. Fowler.

After an illness of ten days with typhoid fever, Mr. John C. Fowler died at his residence in Henrico county at 9:15 o'clock, Friday evening.

Mr. Fowler leaves his second wife, who before her marriage to him was Mrs. Grace E. Lord; two sons and a daughter—Messrs. John E. and Ernest S. Fowler, of Richmond, and Mrs. John A. Korl, of Lincoln, Va. His children are by his first wife, who was Miss Abbie Chase Gould, of Minneapolis. He is also survived by two brothers, Messrs. E. P. C. Fowler, of Tallapoosa, Ga., and C. S. Fowler, of Minneapolis, and one sister, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, also of Minneapolis.

Although not a Virginian by birth, Mr. Fowler spent a great many years in the State, having bought the Rural Shores home, on the Nine Mile Road, a short distance east of Richmond, not long after the Civil War. His parents and grandparents lived in Church Notices.

EPISCOPAL.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Rev. WM. E. EVANS, rector, of the Church of the Advent, Birmingham, Ala., will officiate at 11 A. M. and 8:15 P. M. Visitors and strangers cordially welcome.

TO-NIGHT

Carcare

BEST FOR THE BOWELS AND LIVER

10c. 25c. 50c.

GENUINE

$1.00 Each

OSTRICH

3 for $2.50

...FEATHERS...

Hard times and need of ready money compels us to sacrifice all our stock at prices below importation figures.

Feathers here offered are from 12 to 16 inches long, glossy, beautiful and in all desirable colors. Regular price $4 to $6. To secure these bargains, WRITE AT ONCE, as supply is limited. Send cash or money order. Money refunded on return of goods if not as represented. Price $2.50 for 3 feathers. Feather Boxes, four strings, over two yards long, in natural and black color, $5.

American Ostrich Feather Company
467 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

ALL RUN DOWN.

Miss Della Stroebe, who had completely lost her health, found Relief from Per-una at Once.

Read What She Says:

Miss Della Stroebe, 710 Richmond St., St. Paul, Minn., writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. I could not enjoy my meals, and could sleep only at night. I had heavy, dark circles about the eyes."

"My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Per-una a trial, and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I cannot say too much for Per-una as a medicine for women in a run-down condition."

Per-una Did Wonders

Mrs. Judge J. F. Boyer, 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., says that she was drowned in the Catawba River near the falls, this afternoon, in an effort to save the life of Miller Strong, son of Dr. C. M. Strong, of this city, who went out to the river this afternoon in an automobile with a party of other friends and relatives. While wading in the river the lad got beyond his depth, and cried for help. Alexander, who cannot swim, jumped into the water and made for the lad. Young Strong gained footing on the bank, and, clutching Alexander, managed to save himself, while Alexander sank for the last time before the young men in the party could effect his rescue.

The body was recovered this afternoon late. Alexander was a son of one of the most prominent families in the county and unmarried.

OBITUARY

John C. Fowler.

After an illness of ten days with typhoid fever, Mr. John C. Fowler died at his residence in Henrico county at 9:15 o'clock, Friday evening.

Mr. Fowler leaves his second wife, who before her marriage to him was Mrs. Grace E. Lord; two sons and a daughter—Messrs. John E. and Ernest S. Fowler, of Richmond, and Mrs. John A. Korl, of Lincoln, Va. His children are by his first wife, who was Miss Abbie Chase Gould, of Minneapolis. He is also survived by two brothers, Messrs. E. P. C. Fowler, of Tallapoosa, Ga., and C. S. Fowler, of Minneapolis, and one sister, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, also of Minneapolis.

Although not a Virginian by birth, Mr. Fowler spent a great many years in the State, having bought the Rural Shores home, on the Nine Mile Road, a short distance east of Richmond, not long after the Civil War. His parents and grandparents lived in Church Notices.

EPISCOPAL.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Rev. WM. E. EVANS, rector, of the Church of the Advent, Birmingham, Ala., will officiate at 11 A. M. and 8:15 P. M. Visitors and strangers cordially welcome.

TO-NIGHT

Carcare

BEST FOR THE BOWELS AND LIVER

10c. 25c. 50c.

GENUINE

$1.00 Each

OSTRICH

3 for $2.50

...FEATHERS...

Hard times and need of ready money compels us to sacrifice all our stock at prices below importation figures.

Feathers here offered are from 12 to 16 inches long, glossy, beautiful and in all desirable colors. Regular price $4 to $6. To secure these bargains, WRITE AT ONCE, as supply is limited. Send cash or money order. Money refunded on return of goods if not as represented. Price $2.50 for 3 feathers. Feather Boxes, four strings, over two yards long, in natural and black color, $5.

American Ostrich Feather Company
467 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Connecticut, and from that State Mr. Fowler came to the Old Dominion. He was prominent as a citizen and a large property-holder, and was well known and highly esteemed, both in Richmond and in the county. He was a Mason, an Odd-Fellow and a grand commander of the Virginia-North Carolina Division, G. A. R.

The funeral will be conducted from the Third Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Charles Pollard Cooke.

News has just been received in Richmond of the sudden death of Mr. Charles Pollard Cooke at Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Cooke was the son of the late Mr. W. R. C. Cooke, of Lower Brant, Fluvanna county, who married Miss Clara Cooke.

Mr. Cooke was educated at Sewanee University and the University of Virginia and made a brilliant success in the mercantile business in New Orleans. He is survived by his widow, the daughter of Hon. Wm. Howe, and two children. He also leaves his mother, and the following brothers and sisters: Messrs. P. St. George Cooke, Cary Cooke, W. R. C. Cooke, Dr. Paul Cooke, Mrs. Forney Johnson and Mrs. David Leman. The interment will be made at Lower Brant this afternoon.

Mr. Frank Frances.

Mr. Frank Frances died at his residence, No. 2422 East Main Street, yesterday morning at 3 o'clock after a lingering illness, aged seventy-eight years. He had been engaged in the mercantile business in this city for nearly fifty years. He was honorary president of the Italian Beneficial and Social Society, and was one of its oldest members. He is survived by his widow, who is a sister of Mrs. John B. Canepa.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood.

Funeral of Mrs. Ratcliff.

The funeral of Mrs. R. J. Ratcliff, who died at her home, No. 2115 East Franklin Street, on Thursday evening, will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from Trinity Methodist Church. Services will be conducted by the Rev. W. R. Proctor and the interment will be in Oakwood.

Funeral of Mrs. Vanderlehr.

The funeral of Mrs. A. L. Vanderlehr, who died at her residence, No. 120 West Clay Street, on Thursday, will take place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from St. Mary's German Catholic Church.

Edward T. McVeigh.

Mr. Edward T. McVeigh, a veteran of the Civil War, died at the Soldiers' Home yesterday morning, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was a native of Pennsylvania, and was admitted to the home on February 11, 1907. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Belle McVeigh, of this city.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this morning from the Soldiers' Home Chapel.

Judge Frederick Moore.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., August 15.—Judge Frederick Moore died at his residence, 1010 Broadway, Asheville, N. C., yesterday evening shortly before 8 o'clock, following an operation necessitated by intestinal trouble.

Judge Moore suffered an attack of fever while holding court at Bakersville, but insisted on finishing the term. He returned to this city about ten days ago, suffering from high fever, which, however, was not considered serious. On Thursday night, when intestinal trouble developed, and an operation became necessary. The judge stood the operation well, and his condition seemed favorable until late in the afternoon, when he began sinking rapidly, and the end came at 8 o'clock.

Judge Frederick Moore was born in Buncombe county, September 10, 1869, and at the time of his death was admitted to the bar in 1891, and became a partner of Hon. J. W. Moore, of Asheville. In 1895 Judge Moore came to Asheville and formed a partnership with his cousin, Judge Charles Moore, and under the firm name of Moore & Moore. He was nominated by the Democratic party to the office of judge of the Superior Court in 1898, to fill an unexpired term, and was elected in November of that year. Although one of the youngest men in the court, he was recognized as one of the foremost judges of the State, and soon obtained a most enviable reputation.

Judge Moore was married November 27, 1895, to Miss Lela Enloe, daughter of Captain W. A. Enloe, of Jackson county. His wife and five children survive him.

Although no funeral arrangements have yet been made, it is understood that the remains will be taken to Webster, where interment will take place, after a short stay in the city.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HAMPTON, VA., August 15.—Mrs. Margaret Fraley, fifty-five years old, wife of F. G. Fraley, former of the Upper department of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, died this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks, from paralysis. Mrs. Fraley had lived here for seventeen years.